

FAMILY & CONSUMER SCIENCE

INTERIOR DESIGN I NEW CLASS!

CLASS NUMBER		CLASS LENGTH	1 semester
GRADE LEVEL	9, 10, 11, 12	CREDIT	0.5
CLASS FEES	None	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	None	NOTES	Students must purchase their own sketchbook.

The purpose of this course is to expose students to various aspects of the interior design industry and is based on the industry's professional standards. The first semester focuses on residential design. Students will design floor plans, learn to apply color, learn about materials, textures, and finishes as well as furniture and lighting effects. Students will need a sketchbook for this course where they will build a portfolio of floor plans, furnishings, color designs, shade and shadows and other residential designs.

INTERIOR DESIGN II NEW CLASS!

CLASS NUMBER		CLASS LENGTH	1 semester
GRADE LEVEL	9, 10, 11, 12	CREDIT	0.5
CLASS FEES	None	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	Interior Design I	NOTES	Students must purchase their own sketchbook.

This course will build off of Interior Design I. This class focuses on commercial design which includes health care, hospitality, government institutions, corporate offices, and restaurants. Students will learn elements and principles related to public space and will learn the design process and practice it in their portfolio or sketchbooks. Students will create sample boards, floor plans, and layouts.

FASHION DESIGN I

CLASS NUMBER	1420	CLASS LENGTH	1 semester
GRADE LEVEL	9, 10, 11, 12	CREDIT	0.5
CLASS FEES	$15.00	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	None	NOTES

This course is designed to integrate knowledge, skills and practices required for careers in textiles and apparel. Students will learn the basics of wardrobe selection, purchasing and care. A study of textiles and basic construction techniques and overview of career opportunities completes the course. Students must provide fabric and notions for projects. Basic supplies are provided. Students desiring to continue for a second semester may take an independent study (with teacher permission).

FASHION DESIGN II

CLASS NUMBER	1421	CLASS LENGTH	1 semester
GRADE LEVEL	9, 10, 11, 12	CREDIT	0.5
CLASS FEES	$15.00	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	Fashion Design I	NOTES

CHILD & ADOLESCENT DEVELOPMENT

CLASS NUMBER	1422	CLASS LENGTH	1 semester
GRADE LEVEL	9, 10, 11, 12	CREDIT	0.5
CLASS FEES	None	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	None	NOTES

Readiness for parenting, costs and time management constraints of child rearing will be studied. Creating a nurturing, stimulating, safe and healthy environment as it relates to lifelong health of the newborn to age 20 is primary focus of the course. Activities with children for a "Parenting Field Trip" give opportunities for making observations concerning children. Students will learn experientially about parenting roles and responsibilities by completing a computer animated baby scenario.

CULINARY NUTRITION

CLASS NUMBER	2416	CLASS LENGTH	1 semester
GRADE LEVEL	10, 11, 12	CREDIT	0.5
CLASS FEES	$25.00	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	None	NOTES

Students will have the opportunity to broaden their understanding of the impact food has on their lives from the diet/health link to career options in the field of foods and nutrition. Emphasis will be on building skills in the areas of nutrition, consumer skills, food management, safety and sanitation as well as some food preparation. Lab experiences during the second and third six weeks will reinforce the basic skills and develop critical thinking. This course is a prerequisite course for Introduction to Culinary Careers and Catering.

BLOCK SCHEDULE-2 PERIODS!CATERING

CLASS NUMBER	3416/3417	CLASS LENGTH	1 semester, 2 periods
GRADE LEVEL	10, 11, 12	CREDIT	1.0
CLASS FEES	$20.00	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	Culinary Nutrition	NOTES

This course is for students who are considering careers in the Food Service or Hospitality Industry. Coursework will focus on meal planning, costing, sanitation, food preparation, presentation and service. Students will be exposed to the food service industry by means of field trips and resource speakers. A research paper about a selected food service career will be completed. Are you interested in running your own restaurant, catering service or having a career in the food service industry? Here is your chance to try your hand as an entrepreneur. Students will plan and coordinate a small, for profit catering business. This course will be beneficial whether you decide on a career in the food service industry or simply enjoy food for the rest of your life.

PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS

CLASS NUMBER	3422	CLASS LENGTH	1 semester
GRADE LEVEL	11, 12	CREDIT	0.5
CLASS FEES	None	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	None	NOTES

This course for MATURE juniors and seniors offers the opportunity to analyze and understand self as well as explore the foundation necessary for establishing healthy relationships. It is designed to encourage self-assessment and utilization of decision making and problem solving to undertake self-improvement and understand theories of personality development. Personal interactions, communication skills and their impact on relationships will be addressed. Students will evaluate aspects of establishing healthy adult and family relationships.

LIFE MANAGEMENT

CLASS NUMBER	3424	CLASS LENGTH	1 semester
GRADE LEVEL	11, 12	CREDIT	0.5
CLASS FEES	$15.00	CREDIT AREA	Life Skills/Fine Arts
PREREQUISITES	None	NOTES

Students will learn practical skills for living on their own, including budgeting, use of credit, management of financial resources, balancing work and family consumer skills. A brief study of nutrition for good health, food safety and sanitation as well as limited food preparation completes the course. Career exploration, resume writing and other job seeking skills are a part of the exploration. This course is designed to sharpen your focus on your own life and improve decision making skills for your future.
